REPORTS.

Board of Education—No. 1.

We ask the Conference to endorse the following Constitution adopted by the Board of Education, and authorize the board to make such changes, from time to time, as may be necessary for the better discharge of its duties.

ARTICLE I.

Composition of the Board.

The Board of Education of the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, shall consist of 12 members, of which number 6 shall be laymen, living within the bounds of the Conference. The members of the board shall be elected by the first session of the Annual Conference, after the General Conference, on nomination of the presiding elders. The members so appointed shall serve for a term of four years. At least one-third of the members of the board at the close of any quadrennium shall be appointed on the new board for the next quadrennium. If any member of the board absent himself from as many as two annual meetings of the board in succession, without giving sufficient reason, his place shall be declared vacant. All vacancies occuring shall be filled by the Annual Conference, on nominations of the presiding elders. Announcement of the time and place in open Conference during the session of the Conference shall be deemed sufficient notice, and at other times upon the call of the executive committee, notice being given in writing, signed by the secretary, at least ten days before the time of meeting.

ARTICLE II.

Officers of the Board, and Their Duties.

1. The officers of the board shall be a president, vice-president, recording secretary, treasurer, and Conference secretary of education. Except the Conference secretary, all officers of the board shall be elected for four years, or until the close of the quadrennium. The Conference secretary of education shall be appointed annually by the bishop in charge, on the recommendation of the board, and shall be a member ex officio of the board. The officers shall be elected by ballot at the session of the Annual Conference at which the board is chosen.

2. The duties of the president and vice-president shall be those usually performed by such officers. It shall be the duty of the recording secretary to keep a record of all the proceedings and acts of the board, and to record the same in permanent form in a book kept for that purpose. The duties of the treasurer shall be to hold in trust all funds for its use, and to pay out same under the direction of the board, or of the executive committee. It shall be the duty of the Conference secretary of education to superintend the affairs of the board, and to see that its orders and plans are faithfully carried out.

ARTICLE III.

The Powers and Duties of the Board.

The board shall have oversight of all the educational work within the Annual Conference, and shall require annual reports from all the institutions of learning within the bounds of the Conference. Such reports shall show, (1) the value of grounds, buildings, and equipment; (2) the income from (a) tuition, (b) endowment, (c) Conference collections, (d) other sources; (3) (a) the number of teachers employed, (b) number of pupils; (4) the courses of instruction given; (5) the requirements for entrance into the freshman class, if a college or junior college, or for entrance into the high school or academy, if a secondary school, and for graduation; (6) the amount and kind of debt; (7) the amount of endowment. It shall be the duty of the board to recommend all assessments upon the Conference for educational purposes; to recommend loans or gifts either to students or institutions; to make application to the general board of education for the classification of schools within the Conference; to make full report of its work to the general board through its secretary, including the educational statistics of the Conference, to the general board, and the names and addresses of candidates for the ministry; to advise, and when wise, to co-operate with the trustees of the institutions within the Conference in securing endowment and adequate equipment; to co-operate with the general board and other educational agencies in correlating existing institutions and in establishing new institutions if, in the judgment of the board and the Annual Conference, such institution seems necessary or expedient.

All recommendations, plans, and acts of the board to become valid, must be approved by the Annual Conference, provided, all recommendations, plans, and acts of the board during the interim of the Annual Conference must be submitted to the ensuing Annual Conference for ratification.

The executive committee shall consist of the officers of the board. The committee shall meet on the call of the president or Conference secretary.

The executive committee shall have general supervision of the educational work of the Conference during the interim of the annual meetings. It shall counsel and aid the Conference secretary of education in his duties, and shall take all necessary steps to carry into effect the plans and directions of the board.

ARTICLE V.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

In order that the institutions may be recognized, supported, and commended to the patronage of our people as Methodist schools, they must meet the following conditions:

1. They must be owned and controlled, according to the law of the Church, by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

2. They must conform to the standards and requirements adopted and published by the commission on education.

3. They must work in harmony with the Church's idea of a correlated system of schools for the entire Church.

We recommend to the general board of education that Wofford College and Columbia College be classed as "A" class colleges; that Carlisle Fitting School be classed as "A" class academy.

The general board of education has asked for an expression from this Conference on some questions for future legislation.

1. That no school or preacher's institute be established by any Annual Conference that is not also indorsed by the general board of education. We recommend that you approve this.

2. We recommend that you approve the plan to include, wherever possible, in the curriculum of our schools and colleges, a department of religious education, including Sunday School and Christian work methods.

3. That we do not approve combining the assessments for general education and Conference education.

We nominate the following trustees for our institution:

Wofford College.—J. L. Glenn, Jas. W. Kilgo, R. A. Child, D. M. McLeod, F. H. Shuler, W. E. Burnett, Jno. B. Cleveland, J. A. McCullough, B. H. Moss, H. P. Williams, H. B. Carlisle, Walter F. Stackhouse, W. C. Kirkland.

Board of Education—No. 2.

Your board has cerefully considered the condition of our colleges and secondary schools as that condition has been brought before it in the reports of the boards of trustees and of the presidents of these institutions. It gathers from these reports that all of them, possibly with one exception, have entered upon a most prosperous year.

Columbia College.—The report before your board dealing with current expenses and income shows that the last session of this college was a most successful one financially. There are 23 teachers and tutors, with an enrollment of 287 students. Value of plant, $256,500.00. Indebtedness, $93,000.00. We recommend that the agent be continued.

Lander College.—The opening, September 18, 1912, was the best in the history of the college. There is a total attendance of two hundred and thirty-four (234)—one hundred and fifty-nine (159) in the boarding department, fifty (50) town students, and twenty-five (25) special students of music, art, and domestic science. Twenty officers and teachers. Value of plant, $147,300.00. Endowment, $4,200.00.

Wofford College.—The fifty-eighth session of Wofford bids fair to be the best in its history. There are three hundred and five (305) students in college and one hundred and eighty-one (181) in the Fitting School, making a total of four hundred and eighty-six (486), with 17 professors. This is the largest enrollment in the history of the college, and the largest strictly academic body of students in the State of South Carolina. Carlisle Memorial Hall is completed and is now crowded to its full capacity. The property and resources of the college have been increased $50,800.00. The endowment is $183,000.00. We recommend that the trustees have the privilege of soliciting funds, if they desire.

Carlisle Fitting School.—All the indications point to the banner year in the history of this school. Eighty-two (82) students have enrolled to date, with six teachers. The boys' dormitory is overcrowded, and the great need of the school at this time is an additional building for boys. This school affords Methodism a wonderful opportunity in lower South Carolina, and your board recommends that the trustees be authorized to raise funds for the new dormitory for boys. The property value is $35,000.00. Endowment, $5,000.00.

Cokesbury Conference School.—The enrollment for the current year, counting all grades, is forty (40) pupils, with three teachers. This school is still in its day of struggle. Property, estimated value, $6,000.00. Endowment, $1,000.00.

Conference Educational Assessment.—At the request of the Board of Education the editors of our Conference Minutes in the last issue published not only the assessment on each charge for Conference education, but also the amount paid by each charge on its assessment. A study of these two columns shows that many of our charges are indifferent in a measure to this obligation. Thirty-four (34) charges in the Conference paid nothing to this cause last year, and only eighty-eight (88) of the charges paid the assessment for Conference education in full.

Anderson District.—In the Anderson District two charges paid nothing on the assessment; five paid the assessment in full, and 55 per cent. was paid on the assessment by the district.

Charleston District.—In this district three charges paid nothing; eleven paid in full, and the percentage paid by the district was 72 per cent.

Cokesbury District.—Two paid nothing; four paid in full. The amount of the assessment paid by the district is 62 per cent.

Columbia District.—Three charges in this district paid nothing; nine paid in full, and the district percentage is 70.

Florence District.—Two charges paid nothing; eleven paid in full, and about 73 per cent. was paid by the district.

Greenville District.—Charges paying nothing, 5; charges paying in full, 7; district percentage, 57.

Kingstree District.—Number of charges paying nothing, none; charges paying in full, 10; district percentage, 80.

Marion District.—Number of charges paying nothing, 4; charges paying in full, 7; district percentage, 71.

Orangeburg District.—Charges paying nothing, 2; charges paying in full, 7; district percentage, 72.

Rock Hill District.—Charges paying nothing, 2; charges paying in full, 4; district percentage, 54.

Spartanburg District.—Six paid nothing; six paid in full; and the total by the district on assessment was 52 per cent.

Sumter District.—Number of charges paying nothing, 1; charges paying in full, 8; district percentage, 71.

Kingstree District stands first, having paid 80 per cent. of its assessment. Spartanburg District is at the foot of the column, with 52 per cent. of its assessment paid. The time has come for this assessment to be placed on a par with our assessments for missions, and again we urge our pastors to strive to lay this assessment upon the conscience of all our members. We request the secretaries to continue to report the assessment on as well as amount paid by each charge.

Needs of Colleges.—Your board calls the attention of the Conference to the needs of our colleges, possibly never more imperative than at present. The indebtedness on Wofford College, amounting to $50,000.00, must be liquidated. Another dormitory ought to be built, at a cost of not less than $30,000.00. The endowment needs to be increased by $50,000.00, making a total of $130,000.00 that ought to be raised for this institution. The indebtedness on Lander College is $44,000.00; on Columbia College $93,000.00. The efficiency of these two colleges will be crippled if these debts be allowed to remain indefinitely to harass the administration.

Financial Interests Unified.—In view of these imperative needs, and believing that they can best be met by unifying the financial interests of our colleges, your board submits the following tentative plan to be considered by the Conference for one year and adopted at the ensuing session of the Annual Conference, with whatever changes in the wisdom of the Conference may seem best:

1. That, as soon as a commissioner of education can be secured, a campaign, lasting not longer than three (3) years, be inaugurated for raising $300,000.00 for our colleges.

2. That this fund be distributed as follows: One-half of the amount raised being donated to Wofford College and Fitting Schools, one-fourth to Lander College, and one-fourth to Columbia College. Amounts secured for any institution, through agents or otherwise, within the bounds of our Conference, between now and the inauguration of this campaign, shall be deducted from the amount to be appointed to that institution.

3. That the presidents of these colleges, with the chairman of the boards of trustees, and the president of the Conference Board of Education, and Conference Secretary of Education, be appointed a committee to secure a commissioner of education, and shall assist him in planning and prosecuting the campaign.

4. That all our pastors and members give their undivided influence and support to the accomplishment of this great work.

5. That with the inauguration of this canvass all other financial agents for our colleges shall be withdrawn from the field.

We ask the Conference to adopt at this time Section 3 of this plan.

We recommend that the president of the Board of Education be empowered to call a meeting of the committee named in Section 3, as early as practicable, to begin this work.

CONFERENCE LOAN FUND.

We have considered the memorials from Cokesbury and Marion Districts, relative to an aid fund for ministerial students.

We recommend that, in the years when there is no assessment for General Conference expenses, an assessment of $2,100.00 be made by the Conference to establish and maintain a loan fund to aid students for our ministry; said fund to be administered by the General Board of Education, only on recommendation of this Conference Board of Education, for students in our own Church institutions.

The report from the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University shows a gratifying increase in attendance. The report of the director of our Correspondence School shows that a growing number of our undergraduates are taking the correspondence course.

Assessments.—The General Board of Education has placed upon our Conference an assessment of $4,636.00.

We recommend an assessment of $16,700.00 for Conference education, to be divided as follows: Wofford College, $11,500.00; Columbia College, $5,000.00; for use of the board, $200.00; Cokesbury Conference School, $750.00.

Appointments.—We respectfully ask the bishop to make the following appointments: L. F. Beaty, assistant editor of Sunday school literature; John O. Willson, president of Lander College; W. W. Daniel, president of Columbia College; S. A. Nettles, editor of Southern Christian Advocate; R. A. Child, financial agent of Lander College; Peter Stokes, Conference secretary of education; R. O. Lawton, professor in Lander College; E. O. Watson, president Horry Industrial High School; D. E. Camak, president Textile Industrial Institute.

Peter Stokes, Secretary.

Epworth Orphanage.

After all of the preliminary and necessary arrangements had been made for the establishment of the Epworth Orphanage, the doors of the institution were opened to receive its first children on January the 20th, 1896. At that time there was only one home on the grounds, and in it lived the superintendent, with his own family, all the helping force and the orphan children who were admitted, until the other homes could be provided. The institution has had a continuous growth, in a material way and in the number of inmates, until now there are twenty buildings upon the campus and a family of 220, with others accepted, and a total present membership of 235. The property valuation is $200,000.00.

The weather conditions in the early part of the past year were so unfavorable that our people could not attend church services as they otherwise would have done, and in consequence the contributions for our work were not sufficient to meet expenses. Had it not been for some interest-bearing securities there would have been deficits hard to overcome. The amounts of receipts from all sources, however, provided the management with funds sufficient to meet the demands for living expenses, and our obligations have been paid as they matured. The work day contributions began to come in the latter part of September and have been a great help to the Orphanage.

During the school year 1911-1912 Prof. H. Z. Nabers was relieved of the duties of teacher, in order that he might give more assistance to the superintendent, so that he could visit more of the pastoral charges in the interest of the institution. It was thought best, however, that Professor Nabers should return to his position as teacher, and this arrangement will not allow the superintendent much time to act as field agent. We must, therefore, depend upon our pastors and Sunday school superintendents to present the claims of the Orphanage to our people for the maintenance of the work. Notwithstanding the trials and difficulties of the past year, we are grateful for the fact that we can report to this Conference that the financial condition of the Orphanage has been maintained, as compared with its former status.

The farm and garden have each yielded well this year. The garden has supplied the Orphanage tables with an abundance of vegetables, and we have had some to spare for the market. The field crops consist of corn, oats, cotton, potatoes, peas, and hay. A bale of cotton per acre has been produced this year, and enough grain and hay to supply our needs. The small farm is being brought up to a higher state of cultivation each year, and its yield helps much in the matter of cutting down expenses. A large per cent. of our hogs died last spring from cholera, and on this account we will perhaps not be able to kill more than 3,500 pounds of pork this winter. We have six head of stock and a herd of cattle, numbering thirty head.

The industries, other than the farm, have been fairly well supplied with work, and there is some improvement in the amount of orders for the marble department. It is our purpose to make these industries pay expenses, at least, and at the same time furnish training for the boys assigned to these departments.

There has been no building done during the year, but evidently a new home will be needed soon, if the Orphanage is to hear with favor the many appeals coming to us for admission of deserving applicants. While no building has been done, improvements have been made by the use of paint and whitewash brushes, in furnishings for the homes and in keeping the buildings in good condition.

During the year we have received a bequest of $500.00 from the estate of Rev. John W. Humbert; $100.00 from Mrs. Mary E. Goodall; and

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Moore, of Tatum, S. C., presented the Orphanage with a practice piano.

Special attention is given to the educational and religious work of the institution. We still have six teachers in the graded school, and there are only a few of our children under the school age. Three girls finished the course of study at the closing exercises in June. The Orphanage church has its Sunday school, preaching services, prayer meetings, and morning prayers. The children are responding to the religious teachings and influences for good, which they receive. Forty-five of them have been received into the Church this year on profession of faith.

The health conditions have been fairly good, barring the fact that contagious diseases—measles and whooping cough—were prevalent here for a period in the early part of the year. A small boy, John Dickey, died from the effects of whooping cough, and Hattie Herron from taking unwittingly a swallow of poisonous medicine. Several cases of hookworm and pellagra were found among the children during the spring and summer. Some of them came to the Orphanage with these ailments. Other cases were doubtless developed here. The best medical advice has been sought, and the Orphanage physician has treated these cases with all the helps at hand, and the symptoms have generally disappeared. The children look well and vigorous.

Dr. L. K. Philpot, who was physician of the Orphanage for more than ten years, became broken in health last December and has not been able to attend the family since. Dr. H. W. Rice has kindly taken his place and has been faithfully serving the institution. Dr. E. M. Whaley continues the relation of physician for eye, nose and throat diseases among the children, and Dr. Dial keeps up his good work as dental surgeon. For the splendid services rendered the orphans by these friends, without compensation, we here record our sincere appreciation.

In addition to the cash contributions of our people for the support of the work, we gratefully acknowledge the gifts of groceries, cloth, clothing, quilts and fertilizers from the friends of the Orphanage, for favors granted by railroad authorities, and for kindnesses shown by the press, secular and religious, in publishing gratis communications intended for the good of the work.

The blessings of the Lord and the co-operation of His people have enabled us to make such a report as this, but as we look to the future we realize that still larger things must be done and greater obligations must be met.

Material improvements must be made, other industries established, a better equipment should be had, and more children need to be provided for. To meet the growing demands, which now face us at the Orphanage, a larger support fund should be supplied. This could be done easily if the ninety-odd thousand Methodists in South Carolina would see and realize the day of their opportunity.

We are grateful to our Lord and His Church for the success the Orphanage has had so far, and through the same mighty agencies it will accomplish still greater things.

The Board of Managers of the Epworth Orphanage beg leave to report that they have carefully looked into the affairs of the Orphanage, and that they find everything in a most satisfactory condition. Rev. W. B. Wharton has been re-elected superintendent, and the board respectfully requests the bishop to reappoint him to that position.

J. F. Anderson, Chairman Pro Tem.
W. H. Hodges, Secretary Pro Tem.

Anderson, S. C., November 30, 1912.

Southern Christian Advocate.

Your board is pleased to report a continuance of the high standard in the publication of your Church paper.

The Advocate has not fallen off in any particular. The publisher is voluntarily supplying, at additional expense to himself, paper of heavier weight than is prescribed in the contract. The mechanical workmanship is excellent, and the reading matter good and wholesome. The paper will not suffer in comparison with other like publications; and none other reaches its subscribers at a more moderate expense to them.

Our constant aim is for better things, and there is promise of improvement under more favorable conditions.

The circulation of the Advocate was last July 12,981, of which about 500 copies are on the free list. Of the remaining 12,480 actual subscribers, between 25 and 30 per cent. have not been renewed. The renewals should be promptly made to preserve unbroken the benefits of the paper.

We recommend a more liberal use of the columns of the paper by the brethren for report of news items of interest to the Church.

Your board is prompted and controlled in all its actions only by the sincere desire to promote the greatest efficiency in the service of the paper. In the effort we covet and invite the prayerful, active and full co-operation of the Conference and Church membership.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. MEADORS, Chairman.
J. W. HAMEL, Secretary.

Books and Periodicals.

Your committee has considered the interests committed to it, and submits the following report:

Our Publishing House.—On account of a combination of unfavorable circumstances, the Dallas branch of the house has this year shown a loss of $7,689.83. The Nashville house and the Richmond branch have had a prosperous year. The results of the year's business have been gratifying, both in the increased volume and the net profits. From almost every part of our Conference it will mean a saving in time and carriage charges for our preachers to patronize the house at Richmond, though this is a matter of choice. The Nashville house will gladly fill your orders.

2. Our Periodical Literature.—We heartily commend to our preachers and people the Methodist Review and Christian Advocate. These have probably never been more ably edited, nor filled with contributions more helpful, than now. In most of our charges, if not all, we believe there are those who would appreciate these great journals of the Church, and we urge our pastors to present the claims of these general organs as well as the claims of our Conference organ. The Epworth Era has been published this year at a loss of $4,152.42. This shows two things: First, there is need for greater diligence on the part of pastors in circulating this paper. Secondly, that the Church testifies to the value of the Era for our young people by being willing to continue its publication at a money loss.

We note with pleasure that our Sunday school literature not only has an increased circulation, but maintains its high standard of excellence. The Magazine has special merit. From the Children's Visitor to the Magazine we have a literature well adapted to the needs of our people.

We commend the Missionary Voice. This periodical contains the facts that will create and foster the missionary spirit and enthusiasm.

We are glad that the Southern Christian Advocate is finding its way into more homes of our people than ever before. Let us not be contented until our Conference organ has an honored place in every Methodist home in South Carolina. It is worthy such a place, and the present price makes the task easily possible.

3. Some Special Books.—It is still true that "Reading maketh a full man." It is specially true that the best way to guarantee an abiding enthusiasm and a dependable Church loyalty is to encourage our people to read books that teach Methodist doctrine. Our agents have grouped ten books, which they call our "Methodist Library."

This set sells for five dollars. We urge our preachers to endeavor to place a set of these books wherever practicable. A liberal discount is given to the preacher.

Along with these we commend the "Story of the English Bible," by Rev. P. B. Wells, of our Conference.

J. L. Stokes, Chairman.
Henry Stokes, Secretary.

Sunday School Board.

Your board has had great cause for rejoicing, as we have carefully noted in detail the work committed to us.

We call special attention to the following:

1. Literature.—The report of the Sunday school editor, Dr. E. B. Chappell, shows 1,372,371 pupils enrolled in Southern Methodism—an increase of over 35,000 the past year. This large student body has been furnished with the best literature that our Church has ever produced. The graded lesson literature especially has had a large increase in circulation.

We insist that our school authorities look into the merits of this new feature in our literature, and, whenever practicable, introduce the same into our schools—especially in the primary department.

2. Special Days.—We are gratified to note that the number of schools in our Conference observing special days called for in the Discipline has largely increased. This is especially true of Children's Day—the number of schools celebrating this day having about doubled this year. Your board urges that our pastors make diligent effort to have every school in the State observe this day during the coming year.

Rally Day and Decision Day are of importance in the development of our forces, if our people are intelligently directed in the wise use of the same.

3. Model Sunday School Building.—The General Sunday School Board is progressing slowly, but surely, in the matter of collecting funds for the erection of a model Sunday school building in the Southern Assembly grounds at Waynesville, N. C. Your board urges our superintendents to have their schools make liberal contributions to this modern enterprise.

4. Sunday School Extension Work.—We urge that Sunday schools be organized in the forty-seven churches where no schools now exist; also, that schools be established in neglected communities where no churches have been planned. With presiding elders, pastors, superintendents, and our field secretary co-operating, our boards may be greatly enlarged during the coming year.

5. Field Secretary.—Mr. J. M. Way has done effective work, and your board is gratified at the results of his faithful labors.

Your board respectfully asks:

1. That the secretary of the Annual Conference be directed to provide a column in the statistical reports of pastors, showing the numbers joining the Church from the Sunday school.

2. That the Conference continue the assessment of one per cent. on pastors' salaries, and direct that the same be apportioned by the Joint Board of Finance to the several districts. We also ask that collections be made in the early part of the year and forwarded to Dr. C. B. Waller, treasurer of the board, Spartanburg, S. C.

L. F. BEATY, President.
H. B. BROWNE, Secretary.

Epworth League.

The Epworth League cause should find an auxiliary in the life and activity of every loyal Methodist preacher. The League had its origin in a heavenly vision. Its originators saw in it the possibility of saving the young people to our beloved Methodism. The Methodist Church has in her young people a mighty Niagara of unharnessed activity. The supreme work of the League is to lay the hand of availability on these mighty forces which in many places are running to waste. In the doing of this work the League has absolutely no substitute. While information may be received in a greater or less degree from the Sunday school, and the pulpit, still it is the Epworth League that becomes to the young convert an open door, affording him an opportunity to translate his information into effective Christian service.

A survey of the Epworth League work in our Conference brings us face to face with unpleasant facts. The work, while encouraging, is not so encouraging as it should be. When compared with the figures of other Conferences, we must admit that ours is not a League Conference. Out of eight hundred and more organized Methodist churches in our State, we reported last year at the Bennettsville Conference 102 Leagues, both Junior and Senior, leaving more than 700 congregations without an opportunity for organized Christian service among our young people.

However, we are glad to note that the past year has been one of more than ordinary activity in the League work. While statistics for the Conference year just closing, as handed in by the pastors of the respective charges, were not available for this report, we learn from the different sources of information throughout the State that we are moving forward and not backward.

This year has witnessed the organization of several new chapters. The holding of District League Conferences, as enjoined by our Discipline, is receiving greater and greater emphasis by the Epworth League Councils. Our secretary requests that mention be made in this report of the growing evangelistic zeal manifested in many chapters throughout the State. This fact was evidenced in the splendid League Conference held in Bethel church, Spartanburg, in the early summer. The conference was an inspiration from its opening to its closing session. The work was well planned and the plan was well worked. The popular Epworth League indictment, of magnifying the social to the elimination of the spiritual, could not be brought against that conference. The Sunday morning hour was occupied by our beloved Bishop Kilgo. He gave the young workers of the State a great message, emphasizing in a masterful manner the things which constitute the genius of our holy religion.

In view of the good things accomplished in the past, and the greater good possible in the future, your board earnestly begs the privilege of submitting the following recommendations:

1. That Bible study and special courses of instruction, with a view to making more spiritual and intelligent Methodists of our young people, be vigorously prosecuted by the individual League chapters.

2. That our preachers throughout the State direct their attention more closely to the organization of our young people for effective Christian service.

3. That every preacher in our Conference, whether he has a League or not, plan to attend both the conferences held in his district and the State League Conference.

4. That at the following Annual Conferences our Epworth League anniversary be held on Saturday evening.

Respectfully submitted,

Geo. C. Leonard, Chairman.
A. E. Driggers, Secretary.

Church Extension—No. 1.

Your board of Church Extension has carefully considered the interest of this great enterprise and desires to see this cause, second to none, placed in the forefront along side of missions where it justly belongs.

We believe that when our preachers and people are fully awake to its importance it will have the attention it merits and full missionary collections will include full cellections for church extension.

We are glad to note in our Conference in recent years that collections have increased for this claim and such is also the case in the Church at large.

Up to April 1st, 1912, the total donations made to churches in our Conference amount to $66,712. Of which the general board gave $17,865, and the Conference board $48,847.

There are 764 church buildings in the bounds of the South Carolina Conference and of this number 344 have received aid from the Conference board. There are 209 parsonages and of these, 19 have received aid. We have 40 homeless congregations and 42 pastoral charges without parsonages. In view of these facts, who would not recognize the need of greater interest in this cause and the necessity for larger collections?

In line with other Conferences and in accordance with paragraph 396, Article 10, of the Discipline, your board has decided to create a Conference loan fund, and to set aside each year at least 10 per cent. of amount collected for said fund. We believe that setting aside a Conference loan fund will be a nucleus about which other funds will gather.

Our Conference has been asked to contribute to a loan fund to be known as the William Wallace Duncan Loan Fund. Response to this fund has been disappointing. In order that the fund may be increased, we respectfully ask permission to add, for ten years, ten per cent. to the assessment of the general board, to be distributed as a part of that assessment by the joint board of finance, and to be deducted from the receipts and applied to said loan fund.

The Washington representative church claim was presented in our report last year and we are pleased to mention that in this enterprise progress has been made. It is endorsed by all of our bishops and should meet with a hearty and liberal response from our people. We urge our preachers to give our people an opportunity of having a part in this enteprise.

The great need is that our people be informed, and we feel that their faith, loyalty, and love for the establishing of the kingdom of our Lord will respond with their means that will enable the Church Extension Board to do its part to this end.

There is interesting literature full of facts which our people need, published by the general board. This literature is for free distribution upon request, and we urge that our preachers secure the same and distribute among the people.

We also urge our preachers to establish in our Sunday Schools the Sunday School loan fund.

We ask the secretary to provide columns showing both the assessment and the payment of each charge for the Church Extension assessment.

JAMES W. KILGO, Chairman.
M. W. HOOK, Secretary.

Memorial to General Board of Missions.

WHEREAS, Many years ago, at Wilmington, N. C., the General Board of Missions of our Church adopted a rule forbidding appropriations for any year exceeding in amount the collection on assessments during the preceding year; and,

WHEREAS, This rule met with wide approval, and under its operation the then existing debt of the board was reduced to manageable proportion, and at the same time our collections for missions and our missionary forces in the foreign field increased greatly; and,

WHEREAS, It is reported that the Wilmington rule has been stretched to include special gifts, and thereby has destroyed the intended safeguards; therefore,

Resolved by the South Carolina Conference, That we respectfully request the General Board of Missions to restore the Wilmington rule, without amendment, and so safeguard the Church against increased debt, our missions against uncertainty and embarrassment, and also so encourage the Church that the losses in collections noted in some places be stopped, and the great cause of sending the gospel to the world be further benefited and promoted.

JOHN O. WILLSON,
WATSON B. DUNCAN.

Temperance.

Your Committee on Temperance begs to submit the following report:

After gathering all information possible in regard to this momentous question, as it touches our State and nation, we feel profoundly grateful to Almighty God for all past successes, and our faith is greatly strengthened for future conflicts. While in some places in our State conditions are deplorable, because of the lack of sworn officials to enforce our prohibition laws, yet we believe there is a growing sentiment against the liquor traffic. We condemn the iniquitous "locker club" system, which has been inaugurated in this State, as an evasion of the law as destructive of manhood and morals. We are rejoiced to learn that at the approaching session of the legislature a Bill will be introduced looking to the destruction of this menace to our prohibition law, and we pledge our loyalty and most hearty co-operation to our leaders in the legislative body in our State in regard to this matter. We rejoice with our sister States where our liquor laws have been so strengthened as to mean the closing of thousands of saloons during the year 1912. Especially do we rejoice with West Virginia in their recent victory, when constitutional prohibition was carried by 82,000 majority. We rejoice in the part the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has always taken in fighting against this giant evil of intemperance and pledge ourselves to renewed zeal and effort; therefore, be it resolved:

First. That we unqualifiedly endorse the Kenyon-Sheppard Bill, now before the House of Congress and the United States Senate, regulating the interstate commerce liquor trade, and that as a Conference we memorialize all our representatives, in both branches of Congress, to use their best endeavors, by influence and votes, for its passage, and that the secretary of the Temperance Committee be, and is hereby, instructed to prepare and forward said memorial.

Second. That we pledge our earnest support to Senator H. B. Carlisle, of our State Senate, in his effort to have a law enacted at the next session of the legislature, submitting the question of prohibition to the people of our whole State, to be voted on in a general election during the month of August, 1913.

Third. That we express our utmost confidence in the official body of the Anti-Saloon League of South Carolina, and we earnestly recommend that all our preachers and people co-operate with them in every way possible in their efforts to banish the liquor traffic in every form from our beloved State.

Fourth. That we recommend that the presiding bishop of the Conference accede to the expressed wish of the State Executive Committee of the Anti-Saloon League of South Carolina, and appoint Rev. J. L. Harley as superintendent of the League for the ensuing year, and that J. C. Otts and J. B. Carlisle be hereby elected to serve us on the Board of Trustees. Thos. G. Herbert, Secretary.

Sabbath Observance.

It is no more a question of the religious feature only of Sunday observance that appeals to us as the advocates of God's law; it includes the temporal welfare of communities and the orderly and healthful ongoing of society. In view of the very lax opinions of many on this subject, and the actual abuse of many corporations, we should urge, as strongly as possible, the need of a sane observance of this day of rest and of worship.

Let us teach our people that the abuse of Sunday is not only contrary to the law of God, but has in it a possible calamity. In the year 1910 there were reported 1,100 auto disasters, with more or less serious results, many being fatal. Of this number it is worthy of note that, as reported, about 700 of these mishaps took place on Sunday.

It is a well known fact that the railroads, by cheap Sunday excursions, and aided by notorious places of amusement, contribute largely to the abuses and disorders which threaten in many places the orderly observance of God's holy day.

We recommend, therefore, that a committee of three be appointed by the president of this Conference to wait upon our General Assembly and urge some legislation looking to the abatement of this evil. We would urge that pastors preach directly on this subject, requesting our people not only to abstain from such abuses and desecrations of the holy Sabbath, by these summer excursions, but that they unite their influence to keep others from doing so. In the meantime let us use all diligence to make our Sunday services as attractive and instructive as possible, thus offering a counter atraction and elevating the claims of the Lord's day. Respectfully submitted,

J. W. Wolling, Chairman.
J. R. Griffith, Secretary.

Sunday Excursions.

Your committee, appointed to make effort to secure the passage of a law looking toward the stopping of Sunday excursions, beg leave to make the following report:

We met in the city of Columbia during the session of the legislature and succeeded in getting a Bill on the calendar, but for some cause it never came before the House. We request, therefore, that either this committee or a new one be appointed to continue this work for another year.

Thos. G. Herbert,
I. W. Bowman,
N. S. McLeod.

American Bible Society.

The Bible Society Board reports a slight decline in the total amount contributed by the charges of the Conference this year, as compared to last. It regrets to report a decrease also in the number of preachers in charge making reports.

The board asks earnest attention to the following statement:

	Charges.	Reports.	No Report.	Amount Collected.
Anderson	18	11	7	$ 55 85
Charleston	22	15	7	80 91
Cokesbury	20	13	7	47 50
Columbia	26	13	13	38 12
Florence	22	17	5	119 93
Greenville	21	14	7	51 84
Kingstree	21	15	6	60 25
Marion	21	20	1	83 38
Orangeburg	18	15	3	69 98
Rock Hill	18	14	4	58 71
Spartanburg	24	18	6	76 06
Sumter	18	17	1	82 95
Totals	249	182	67	$803 45

The board suggests that our preachers present this worthy claim in the early part of the year, thus insuring better returns.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. WIGGINS, Chairman.
T. W. MUNNERLYN, Secretary.

Your Committee on Minutes begs to submit the following report:

Petition.

To His Majesty, the Emperor of Japan.

Greeting: It is the glory of rulers to have mercy. Therefore, we, the South Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, now in session, representing nearly a hundred thousand American citizens, pray your majesty to have mercy and to pardon our beloved Baron Yun, of Korea, who is now in a Japanese prison for an alleged political conspiracy. To His Excellency, the Japanese Ambassador, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: We, the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, ask leave to call your attention to the case of Rev. T. H. Yun, recently condemned for conspiracy by the Korean courts.

We beg to assure you that one of the fundamental tenets of our Church is submission to the civil authorities; and that we ever urge upon our members that they live righteous and inoffensive lives.

We are, therefore, greatly shocked to hear of Mr. Yun's condemnation. We feel sure, from all we know of his high and spotless life, that he is incapable of engaging in the conspiracy with which he is charged.

In deep affliction over Mr. Yun's case, and yet with hope in the benevolence and justice of your mikado, we venture to ask that, as your country's representative among us, and as a friend of our people, you will forward the enclosed petition and do all you consistently can to procure the pardon of Mr. Yun.

With the highest respect, etc.

Anderson, S. C., November 30, 1912.

R. Y. McLeod.

Robert Young McLeod, D. D., was born on March 7th, 1841, and died at Bishopville, S. C., on the 17th day of May, A. D. 1912. At an early age he joined the Methodist Church and became a member of the South Carolina Conference soon afterwards, and never missed a session of the Conference from that time until 1911, when his last illness prohibited his attendance. He was elected a member of the Joint Board of Finance and was a member of this board continuously thereafter until he died.

He was a patriot; a soldier as "brave as the bravest." He bore the cross of his country as he did the cross of his Christ, and rejoiced in bearing both. Service, unselfish service, to his brother, to his God, was the fountain of his happiness.

Through four years of cruel war, and all its multitude of varied sacrifices, no danger ever daunted him. He faltered before the hazard of no undertaking, personal discomfort never knew his complaint, terror never found the way to his heart.

The same spirit characterized his life in peace. Disappointments, reverses, nor sorrows, never lessened his faith, nor successes and triumphs abate his meekness or cause him to forget the Figure on the cross.

He was a man of splendid physical powers and health, and blessed with an unfailing good humor and sunshine of disposition. He was a "country doctor," and practiced over a territory of many miles; and the cheer of his jovial presence in the sick room went further to restore health than any concoction of science.

His last illness was the highest example of heroic courage and Christian fortitude. For perhaps a year before his death he knew the malady that afflicted him was fatal, but he never flinched nor complained; the cheerfulness of his spirit never quailed before the chill hand of despair; the smile of a confiding faith never forsook his lips; and he died as he had lived—a hero.

As husband, father, friend and neighbor his life was an inspiration and a benediction. By giving him life, God blessed those who touched it in his death; the miracle of faith was again exemplified.

He was one of the strongest pillars of his Church, trustee of his Church property, chairman of the Board of Stewards, district steward—surely Methodism had cause to mourn in his death, but to rejoice in the reaping of the reward which comes to a faithful and consecrated life.

MEMOIRS.

Rev. John A. Wood.

Rev. John Austin Wood, son of Wiley Duncan Wood and Mary Bailey Wood, was born in Spartanburg county, S. C., October 1, 1832, and closed his earthly life in the city of Greenville, S. C., January 10, 1912.

Nearly eighty years of human life! Who can measure its meaning, or tell of its deep and profound significance? Viewed as a segment of time, a part of duration, it is but a span, justifying the view of St. James when he exclaims, "It is but a vapor:" but when we consider it in connection with the great problems of character and destiny which it embodied and successfully solved, who can fully comprehend and adequately describe its results! Brother Wood's early life unfolded and developed in a home of simple faith and earnest piety, and the impressions made upon his mind and heart made for righteousness.

It is no cause for wonder that early in life, he felt that God had a plan for his life, and that some day he must yield to a divine call, and enter the ministry, to bear God's message of salvation to his fellowmen.

Doubtless many of the old time preachers visiting that Christian home had laid their hands upon the head of the quiet, thoughtful boy and prayed that he might become a preacher of the gospel, and these prayers, joined with the prayers of a good mother, were answered. While this sense of a call to the ministry was in his mind and heart during the years of his youth and early manhood, and became more distinct as the years passed, yet it was only during the great revival which swept over the Greenville circuit in the year 1860, that he yielded to the divine call. It was then that he answered the voice of his Lord and said, "Here am I, send me." He was not disobedient to the heavenly vision.

Brother Wood never reached conslusions hastily, but slowly and intelligently, but when he had fully decided upon a course, he held it with a firm grip and pursued it with unfaltering fidelity.

When he realized that his life work was to be the proclaiming of God's truth to men, he became in a very decided sense a man of one book. He sought earnestly and prayerfully to know the mind of the Spirit, and to interpret that mind to his fellows.

Brother Wood was familiar with the word of God, and his sermons and prayers abounded in numerous and apt quotations from the scriptures.

He was well-grounded in the doctrines of his Church and was always loyal to her polity. He was a firm believer in the teachings of the word of God as expounded in the doctrine of our beloved Methodism.

Brother Wood was licensed to preach by the quarterly conference of the Greenville circuit, and recommended to the Annual Conference for admission on trial into the travelling connection. He was admitted in December, 1860, with N. K. Melton, J. L. Sifly, and J. J. Workman.

He served the following charges: Junior preacher on Combahee mission, 1861; Laurens circuit, 1862; Horry circuit, 1863; Marion circuit, 1864; Black River and Pee Dee mission until the summer, then Williamston circuit, 1865; Columbus, N. C., 1866-8; York station, 1869; Williamston circuit, 1870; supernumerary, 1871-80; Campobello circuit, 1881; Cane Creek circuit, 1882; Clinton circuit, 1883; Johnsonville circuit, 1884; Salters circuit, 1885-6; supernumerary, 1887-92; in 1892 he was placed on the list of superannuates. In this relation he remained until God called him to his reward, and happy the pastor who was blessed with the wise counsel, true friendship and earnest prayers of this Godly man.

On January 28, 1885, Brother Wood was married to Mrs. Lou Terry Wason, at Greenville, S. C., by Rev. J. B. Campbell.

It was the privilege of the writer to be associated very intimately with Brother Wood for the past eight years, and he opened his heart freely to me, and in this intimate friendship and fellowship I learned much of the true spirit, the thoughtful mind, and the great heart of this man of God. He was wise and safe in counsel, fatherly and affectionate in advice, faithful in friendship.

I learned to love him for his great worth, and the memory of our associations is an inspiration to emulate his noble qualities.

W. M. Duncan.

Rev. Olin L. DuRant.

December 10, 1843, in the Methodist parsonage of Wadesboro, North Carolina, Olin Lowry DuRant, son of the Rev. Henry Hill and Martha Theodora DuRant, was born. He grew up in the home of a gifted itinerant preacher, and so had priceless religious privileges from his earliest days. He was brought into a conscious conversion in childhood, and he walked with God all his journey in life; all the way he was full of faith and the Holy Ghost.

When prepared for college he entered Wofford and there made full use of his opportunities until in the spring of 1862, he heeded the call of his country and left school to enter the Confederate army. No braver soldier followed the "stars and bars," and yet he was true to Christ in the camp and on the battlefield as when in college halls or at home. When his righteous cause was lost, he came to bleeding Carolina and entered upon the tasks of peace. His integrity was recognized by his fellow-citizens, and he was elected county superintendent of education and then elected and re-elected judge of probate for Pickens county, S. S. He was so occupied when a higher duty called him. From his earliest years he felt that he would be called to preach the gospel. In 1869 he yielded to God, and in 1870 he was licensed to preach. He served as a supply two years and then in 1871 he entered the South Carolina Conference, of which his father was so long a leading member. From mountains to the sea he went gladly where he was appointed, and in every place distilled the vapor of a saintly life, visited the people from house to house, and preached the glorious gospel of the blessed God. Everywhere he had seals to his ministry.

He married, January 14, 1868, Miss Martha J. Nix, of Colleton county, S. C. She was a kindred spirit and walked and worked with him until death parted them, for a little while. Nine children were born of this union and all were brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Brother DuRant was a modest, unobtrusive man, a pious Christian of fixed faith, a gentleman every inch of him, a loving husband and father, a friend as true as steel, a neighbor ready in any fashion to help his fellows, a preacher who believed with all his heart and lived the gospel he preached to others. His appointments were never to so-called leading places, but they were welcomed by him and in them all he was a brother beloved, a winner of souls. When on the 27th day of January, 1912, he entered heaven there were many there to greet him, whom he had helped on the way to everlasting rest. "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace"—a peace in the presence of God.

John O. Willson.

Rev. Eli Alston Wilkes.

August 17, 1861, there was born in Chester county, South Carolina, a son to Eli Cornwell Wilkes and Mary Lou Hawthorn Wilkes; to this child was given the name Eli Alston, who died in the Granby parsonage, February 17, 1912. A little more than fifty years passed between these dates. This life of fifty years was a checkered and eventful one; born of parents who had possessed wealth and social standing for generations. When about two years old his father died in the Confederate army, the young mother with her little boy returned to her father's home, Mr. Robert Hawthorn, who lived near Winnsboro, S. C.; while in her father's home in February, 1865, Sherman's army passed through the State destroying everything on the premises except the dwelling house; this was the most vivid recollections of his child life. In 1866 his mother married Col. Richard Woods, of Chester county, S. C., a man of wealth and advanced in life. He soon became very fond of his witty and frolicsome stepson, and his devotion to the boy blinded him to all his faults; he humored his every wish even to the kind of school he wished to attend, or for any fancied cause allowed him to change from one school to another. Although he spent large sums of money on his education, his scholarship was not thorough on any line; however, after his conversion he made large amends for this lack by much reading and close application. The petted boy became a dissipated young man, and while he, when a child, joined the Methodist Church, later he wandered away from the path of righteousness. His stepfather died in 1884. His mother soon followed her husband to the grave. When he was about 23 years old, he taught school for a living, being now alone in the world with no means. In 1887, when 26 years old, he married Miss Mattie Byers, near Wilkesburg, S. C. She had been a pupil in his school. This marriage proved to be most fortunate, for he soon became serious on the great question of personal salvation. He was teaching in the bounds of my charge, Chester circuit, and I visited him while under deep and powerful convictions for sin. After laboring with him for awhile, I left him in his room alone with God and the tenth chapter of Romans. A few days later I received a letter from him telling of his great salvation. It was indeed a clear and powerful conversion. He wrote me that he must get ready to preach, but a doctrinal point on the mode of baptism must be settled, which was soon done according to the Methodist views. He was at once boycotted by the sectarian majority of his school patrons. I secured for him at once the Capers chapel school, where he was near me the rest of the year. About this time his young wife was converted and joined the Methodist Church. He was licensed to preach in July of this year (1888), and he at once began to preach. He had had no experience in leading religious meetings; his preachings were attended with signal results at New Hope—his mother's old church. He preached for me by request and many of his former associates in sin were present. When the sermon closed every one of them came forward for prayer. A kinsman of his, whose influence over him had much to do in his estrangement from religion, was so deeply affected by Alston's changed life, he too was soon converted. At the approaching Conference, 1888, held at Winnsboro, he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference. From that time, for more than 23 years, his life as a Methodist preacher was before us, transparent as the purest crystal and pure as the driven snow. Brother Wilkes was a good man, gentle in spirit, a man of deep piety, wholly consecrated to his work. After his conversion none doubted his real Christianity. As is well known, he was gifted with humor, wit, and satire, but this arrow was never dipped in the poison of hate nor envy. These are great gifts when handled with the touch of the Christ spirit. The South Carolina Conference has had a large number endowed with these gifts—Paul Kistler, Coke Smith, Jesse Clifton, and others—but none of them have put so much on the printed page to help us keep on the sunny side of life as Alston Wilkes. But for his early environments, he would have compared favorably with Dean Swift and Charles Lamb. Oh, how we do miss E. A. Wilkes' cheering letters in the Advocate. No reader of the Advocate passed over these. Brother Wilkes was a preacher above the average. He was a faithful pastor and his work will abide in the hearts and lives of those he served so well, as in the books he has written. Brother Wilkes left a large and dependent family. After his death a call was made for funds to buy a home for his widow and children; the response to this call went far beyond anything in our history, enough being collected to purchase, in the town of Chester, a comfortable house on a large lot, with money to furnish it, which shows the universal esteem in which he was held. He was called away suddenly from toil on earth to the higher employment above. No doubt he was ready. Farewell, my dear friend and brother, till we meet again, where there is no death.

J. B. Traywick.

Rev. Robert Aiken Yongue.

Rev. Robert Aiken Yongue was born at Sumter, S. C., November 25th, 1851, and died at East Chester parsonage, on East Chester circuit, March 23d, 1912. He was blessed with a consecrated mother, who dedicated him and his borther, Rev. J. C. Yongue, to God in infancy for the gospel ministry. One of the regrets of Brother Yongue's life was that his mother did not live to witness the answer to her prayers.

September 17th, 1873, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Deery, of Charleston, S. C. Two children were born to this union, Lelia Logan, now Mrs. W. D. Wolf, of Fort Mill, S. C., and Clyde E., of Newberry, South Carolina.

Brother Yongue was happily converted about the time of his first marriage and he and his young wife united with the Baptist Church. He was a stonecutter by trade and some of the most beautiful ornamental work in our State is the product of his once skilful hand. About the year 1875, he went to Philadelphia, Penn., to work. While living there he drifted away from God and on his return to South Carolina in 1885, spiritual darkness deep and dense had settled upon his soul. At this time was the writer's first acquaintance with our deceased brother. Hoping to bring his wife back to health again, he bought a farm in Orangeburg county, S. C., and settled within the bounds of what was then known as Boiling Springs circuit. Under the ministry of Rev. L. S. Bellenger, the pastor, a great revival of religion swept over the circuit, and scores of souls were brought into the kingdom of grace. While this revival was in progress at old Hopewell church, Brother Yongue and his wife were both gloriously reclaimed and united with the Methodist Church. While rejoicing in his new-found joy the call came to preach the gospel. Without theological training, without a collegiate education, and with a scanty supply of books, he often remarked, "If God could make a mistake He has surely made a mistake this time;" but knowing that God could not make a mistake, he set himself to the task of carrying out the orders of the Captain of our great salvation.

At Boiling Springs camp ground, during the month of October, 1886, while Rev. Thos. Raysor was presiding elder, Brother Yongue, with the writer, was licensed to preach. Our lives touched almost continuously from then on until the time of his death. We were admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference at Spartanburg, S. C., November 27th, 1887. Our paths divided each year at the Annual Conference only to come together in a short time in revival meetings. While serving the Chesterfield circuit, Sister Yongue died at the Chesterfield parsonage, Chesterfield, S. C., November 13th, 1891.

December 20th, 1892, Brother Yongue was married a second time to Miss Jane M. Harvey, of McBeth, S. C. To this union were born four children: Jennie, Sadie, Robert, Aiken, Jr., and Leon G. All of these, with their mother, lived to bless the memory of their deceased loved one.

Rev. Robert Aiken Yongue was in every sense of the word a Christian gentleman. He was a man of unwavering faith and deepest consecration. Like the true soldier that he was, he never stopped to ask questions, but, accepting the order from his Master, went forth to battle. He preached with power and ability from city and country pulpits throughout the bounds of our Conference, and scores of souls will rise up in the judgment to call him blessed.

He realized for months before his demise that his work on earth must soon come to an end. At our last Conference, at Bennettsville, he talked freely with the writer of his approaching end, saying, "John, my sickness has brought me very close to my Saviour. I want to live to do His will, but I am ready. I have examined the foundation and found it right." Just one month before his death, at a meeting of the board of trustees of the W. W. Smith estate, held at Williston, S. C., of which board he and his brother, J. C., were both members, when a paper was read to be adopted by the board on the death of his brother, Brother Robert said, "Brethren, when you meet next year, I shall not be here. Another man will take my place on the board." His prophecy was true. Just one month later God called him home.

He has gone from us. We will miss him, but we feel sure of one thing: our loss is his eternal gain.

"Servant of God, well done,
Rest from thy fond employ,
The battle's fought, the victory's won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

Rev. Melvin B. Kelly.

On the 29th day of February, in the city of Spartanburg, there fell on sleep one of our foremost preachers. He was a marked man in any assembly. Tall and handsome, with a face like a cameo, an eye flashing with high intelligence. Every movement full of grace, he was the observed of all observers. And when the observer met him it was at once realized that the splendid figure was a man of great gifts and force, a preacher of eloquence and power, a leader among men, especially good men. For years disease had preyed upon him—not one in a thousand could have made such a fight for life, or would have continued to labor unceasingly for the salvation of men. For years we looked for the end, but he held death aloof. At last the dauntless spirit yielded and the Rev. Melvin Bookman Kelly, D. D., closed his eyes on earth to open them in the paradise of God.

He was the son of the late Rev. John W. Kelly, of the South Carolina Conference, and Mrs. Annie Wilbur Kelly, and was born March 21, 1865. He was brought up in the pious home of the itinerant father, and joined the Church in early life. At the age of fifteen he felt impressed that, converted, he would have to preach. In 1887, we believe, at a meeting conducted by the Rev. Thomas H. Leitch, he was not only converted through and through, but was called to preach and obeyed that call. In 1889 he was received into the Conference and had the good fortune of beginning as a junior preacher. Rapidly advancing, he came to fill such pulpits as Anderson, Greenwood, Greenville, Denmark and Clemson College, and when the end came he was field secretary of missions in this State. Every pastorate recognized him as a great preacher —often hearing from him a sermon throbbing with power and of such lofty range as to bear easy comparison with the great messages of some of our strongest bishops. And in all he led men to Christ, built up believers, and advanced every department of the kingdom of God. He was a large factor in the increased interest in missions shown in the years past, and at Anderson and Greenwood he induced the Church to support a missionary pastor in Cuba.

His education began in good schools, continued at Newberry College, and kept on all his life. He read law for two years before deciding his path of privilege was the ministry. Last May, a year ago, Emory College conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity, and honored herself by the act. He was a member of the General Conference of 1910 and was felt in its work from the first to the last day. He served on many Conference boards and he was for years a most valuable trustee of Lander College.

In February, 1891, he married Miss Adella F. Sartor, of Union, S. C. She was his helpmeet in every possible way until he was taken away from her. Four children were the fruit of this union, and they, with their mother, are chief mourners, but hundreds, perhaps thousands besides, shared their sorrows and their consolation. O the pity that so splendid a life was so short—but God knows best. "He buries the workmen but carries on His work." Farewell, thou man of God, till we meet thee in heaven.

John O. Willson.

Rev. Artemas B. Watson.

Artemas Briggs Watson, son of James D. and Myra L. (Briggs) Watson, was born December 16, 1846, near Ridge Spring, in old Edgefield (now Saluda) county. His school opportunities were good; in the military academy of Capt. Hall, of Anderson; of Col. Tew, at Hillsboro, N. C., and finally at the Arsenal in Columbia, when the collapse of the Confederacy terminated his scholastic career. While at Hillsboro he and a company of cadets offered their service to Gen. Beauregard, but they were declined on account of the extreme youth of the boys.

While a very young man, Brother Watson married Cathrine Amanda, daughter of Capt. Thos. Bates, January 6, 1866. She lived only a short while, leaving one son, Andrew Bates Watson. He married a second time, Angelina Rachel, daughter of Dr. Whitefield Wannamaker, of St. Matthews. By this marriage there were eight children, Keitt, Whitefield, Artemas, Frank, Shorter, Adelle, Myra and Bates. Five of these survive, Keitt, Myra and Bates having preceded their father to the better land.

Brother Watson married again, August 25, 1885, Amelia Bonneau, daughter of Rev. Dr. J. Wesley Wightman. Sister Watson is living, with three of the four children God gave them, Wightman, George and Daisy.

Under the hallowed influence of his second wife, and the moving preaching of Rev. Abraham Nettles, of honored memory, Brother Watson was converted and joined the Methodist communion, August 22, 1870, at Providence church, near Batesburg. When this writer became his pastor nine years afterwards he found him "an Isrealite indeed, in whom there was no guile;" the head of a happy home, honored by all his neighbors, and ready for every good word and work. He was the superintendent of the Sunday school at Providence, and I have never known a better. He had a good library, especially of books bearing on his work; used the best lesson helps, and gave each Sunday to his little band well-matured thought of the day.

Brother Watson joined our Conference in 1889. He was sent back to his old county, and, at Edgefield Court House, for four years did a fine and enduring work. He then served Greenwood station, Summerton, Pendleton (including Clemson College), Mullins, Bennettsville station, Bowman, Beaufort. The second year at Beaufort his health began to fail, and he rested during 1909. Taking work again he was sent to Ehrhardt, where, early in the second year of his pastorate, his health gave way completely. He had given twenty-two years of high-grade, zealous, successful work to the Conference. His last days were spent on his plantation near Beaufort, and in the town itself, where, after intense suffering, he fell asleep November 2, 1912.

If I were to emphasize any side of Brother Watson's work I would speak of his ministry in the pulpit and out of it, to the children. He was their friend. He had the heart of a little child. He "loved God and little children."

The death chamber of this good man was "privileged beyond the common walks of men, quite on the verge of heaven." We have not space to quote, and it would be almost sacrilege to quote his dying words. To wife, to children, to friends, he gave his high and holy exhortation and comfort. He kept signalling back reassurance as his barque put out to sea. The brethren of this body were remembered: "Tell the South Carolina Conference to be faithful. What an honor to be a member of it!"

It is said to have been a rare and beautiful sight when his seven living sons sat in front of the chancel of the Ridge Spring church during the funeral services, and then bore his sacred dust to rest among his people.

His contemporaries gathered around and said, "Artemas Watson was the greatest man this section has produced." It was a remarkable testimony. Of course it was the judgment of partial love; it emphasized, of course, his moral worth; but who will say that it was not true?

As we think of our brother's beautiful life and his serene passing away, we feel that we have not lost him—that he is not far from us, though in heaven. We recall the Christian's soliloquy:

"Some day I shall go back to God—
But not away from home.
Still in my heavenly Father's house,
Just in another room!"
